Cole County
Health Department

Technical Advisory – March 23, 2020

COVID-19 Advisory #1

The Cole County Health Department wants to prevent the spread of COVID-19 within our county while enabling essential services to continue. Therefore at this time, it is highly recommended that all individuals remain at home as much as possible to help decrease the spread of this infection. This document outlines recommendations of physical distancing for individuals and businesses.

Stay at home or place of residence. All individuals currently living within Cole County are encouraged to stay at home or at their place of residence unless for essential activities, essential government functions, or to operate essential businesses and operations. Homes or residences include hotels, motels, shared rental units, shelters and similar facilities.

If individuals are using shared or outdoor spaces at their place of residence, it is recommended to adhere to physical distancing as much as possible.

Individuals experiencing homelessness are highly encouraged to obtain shelter. Those individuals whose residence is unsafe or becomes unsafe, such as victims of domestic violence, are urged to leave their home and stay at a safe alternative location.

Non-essential businesses and operations are recommended to limit contact among staff and with the public. All businesses and operations within Cole County are recommended to limit contact with the public and increase cleaning and disinfection of frequently touched surfaces.

Know the signs and symptoms of COVID-19 and what to do if staff become symptomatic at the worksite. Encourage employees to stay home and notify workplace administrators when sick (workplaces should provide non-punitive sick leave options to allow staff to stay home when ill). Review, update, or develop workplace plans to include liberal leave and telework policies and consider alternate team approaches for work schedules.

Implement physical distancing measures, that are not limited to but include increasing physical space between workers at the worksite, staggering work schedules, and decreasing social contacts in the workplace (e.g., limit in-person meetings, meeting for lunch in a break room, etc.).

Increase personal protective measures by ensuring hand hygiene supplies are readily available in building. Staff should clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces at least twice daily.

When possible, encourage staff to telework (when feasible), particularly individuals at increased risk of severe illness. Non-essential work travel should be limited or postponed. Consider regular health checks (e.g., temperature and respiratory symptom screening) of staff and visitors when entering buildings (if feasible).

If possible, offer pickup services for your products. Let customers call in to select items and offer to have it ready for them at register or take payment over the phone and do curbside delivery.

All businesses are recommended to maintain the value of inventory and infrastructure, provide security, process payroll or employee benefits, or facilitate employees working remotely. Continue operations consisting exclusively of employees or contractors performing activities at their own residences (i.e., working from home).

All restaurants and retail food establishments that normally prepare food for on-site consumption are prohibited from conducting any dine-in food service; however, such businesses may provide pickup, drive-through, or delivery services. Any congregate seating for dining is not allowed.

To the greatest extent feasible, all non-essential and essential businesses and operations should exercise physical distancing as much as possible. If open to the public, they should limit the number of patrons in their facility to less than 10 and increase cleaning and disinfection procedures.

Prohibited activities. All public intentional gatherings of more than 10 people in a single space or room is prohibited. This does not apply to gatherings of a household or residence of individuals who reside in such residence.

All places of public amusement, whether indoors or outdoors, including but not limited to, locations with amusement rides, carnivals, amusement parks, water parks, museums, arcades, fairs, children's play centers, play-grounds (including children's play structures in public or private parks), funplexes, bowling alleys, movie and other theaters, concert and music halls, and country clubs, golf clubs (with the narrow exceptions of playing golf where there is no shared equipment by the participants and driving ranges where physical distancing requirements are strictly followed and enforced), social clubs, and athletic clubs should close to the public. An exception shall exist for outdoor parks and trails where no shared equipment is utilized by the patrons.

All public parks and open outdoor recreation areas are encouraged to remain open. Although, playgrounds may increase the spread of COVID-19 and are therefore encouraged to be closed with appropriate notices posted.

Leaving the home. It is highly recommended that all individuals remain home as much as possible, only leaving their residence for essential travel to perform essential activities, specifically related to health and safety, the procurement of necessary supplies and services, for outdoor activity, certain types of work and to care for others. When engaging in any outdoor activity it is recommended that all individuals practice physical distancing.

Schools and Social Services Providing Food. Schools and other entities that ordinarily provide food services to students or member of the public are encouraged to continue these services on a delivery or pick-up and take-away bases only. No onsite gathering is permitted.

Exemptions to Recommendations. All 911 call center employees, fire personnel, corrections personnel, healthcare employees, hazardous material responders from government or the private sector, workers maintaining digital systems infrastructure supporting law enforcement and emergency service operations, first responders, emergency management personnel, emergency dispatchers, court personnel, law enforcement personnel; and people designated by the applicable governing authority are necessary in the performance of essential government functions are exempt from recommendations.

Essential Government Functions. This recommendation does not prohibit any individual from performing or accessing essential governmental functions.

Travel. The CDC does not generally issue advisories to restrict travel within the United States. However, cases of COVID-19 have been reported in many states and crowded travel settings may increase chances of getting COVID-19.

It is recommended that individuals with recent travel outside of Central Missouri self-quarantine for 14 days. If symptoms of fever and/or persistent cough should arise, the individual should call their primary care physician to report symptoms and inform them of their recent travel.
